ReServe Interactive Promotes Tina Gangel to Sales Associate

Livermore, California, February 2, 2010 - ReServe Interactive, a leader in hospitality software solutions, has promoted Tina Gangel to sales associate. Gangel will be responsible for servicing an existing, national customer base, as well as maintaining ongoing contacts with customers in all stages of the sales cycle.

Gangel formerly served as the company's Contract Administrator managing support contracts and software renewals. Gangel joined ReServe in 2008 with more than 15 years of experience with Nortel Networks, where she garnered practical experience in customer service, project management and software performance.

"Tina has been a valuable asset to ReServe Interactive having proven herself as a solid resource to customers throughout the sales process, as well as in a support capacity," explains Mike Edmeyer, Vice President of Sales. "She is enthusiastic and passionate about our product and our organization, and her commitment to customer service will help us more effectively meet our customer's needs."
